Summation

Participation in the Saginaw High School Band is dependent upon effort and a true desire to succeed.

The rules stated in this handbook are easy to understand. The band directors and administration of the EMSISD feel these rules are fair, just, and are in the best interest of the overall Saginaw High School Band, school, and each individual who participates.

Congratulations on becoming an esteemed member of The “Spirit of Saginaw” Band

The Saginaw High School Band does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, or handicap.

Behavior and Discipline

Exemplary behavior is expected of all band members at all times. Remember, you are a representative of your band, your band is a representative of your school, and your school is a representative of your community.

There is no way to list all the do's and don'ts of being a band member. Common sense must prevail. The Director of Bands reserves the right to exercise the authority to make the final decision regarding disciplinary action/removal from the band program. The following infractions are some of the more obvious that qualify for disciplinary action, and or immediate removal from the program.

Any member expelled, suspended, placed in the ADC, or assigned SAC may be immediately dismissed from the band. The dismissal may be for any period of time, as decided by the director and the campus principal. The campus principal will have the final say concerning disciplinary action.

Be seated with instrument, music, pencil, and supplies when the tardy bell rings

Show good rehearsal etiquette by being a good team player—study your part quietly while the director works with another section.

Remain on task at all times; do not talk or interrupt the focus of a rehearsal.

Maintain proper posture at all times, which is important for all players.

Raise your hand and ask questions if you need more individual help.

Leave your instrument cases in your locker during rehearsal and your backpacks at the side of the room.

Lock your locker during rehearsals.

Do not leave purses or other valuables unlocked in the band hall. No food, gum, or drink is allowed in the band hall. We all take pride in keeping our band hall clean and organized.

All instruments remain in cases with latches closed inside a locker when not in use.

Lockers shall remain clean. Items other than instruments, music, and books should not be kept in lockers.

Disorderly behavior and abusive language will not be tolerated.

Leadership Groups

The SHS Band hierarchy is set up to encourage student input in decision making and implementation of policy. The leadership begins with the highest level being Drum Major, followed by Drill Instructors, Section Leader and Band Librarians, ending with squad leaders.

Drum Majors are responsible for all aspects of the program throughout the school year and must implement those duties deemed necessary by the Director of Bands and/or Assistant Directors. All students must answer to the Drum Majors.

Drill Instructors serve to assist the band in learning and cleaning drill. Each drill instructor will be responsible for a part of the band assigned by the Director of Bands.

Band Librarians serve to organize, maintain, and distribute all teaching materials, manuscript, scores, and tryout materials. Band Librarians, Drum Majors, and/or Directors are the only ones allowed to access the Band Library.

Section Leaders are those students who through playing skills and seniority will lead their "like instrument" sections on music mastery, memorization, and musicality. Those students are responsible for their section and the quality of what those sections produce musically.

Fundamental Instructors are responsible for the teaching and maintaining of any and all band fundamentals.

It is an honor and a privilege to be a part of the SHS Band Leadership. Any student who diminishes this responsibility becomes a liability to the program as a whole and subject to disciplinary action.
